AMUSEMENTS.

The "Clemenceau Case" To-Night.

The "Clemenceau Case," a play that has created more comments than any drama ever produced in America, will be presented at the Academy of Music to-night. The beautiful Laura Albert, supported by a competent company, will appear. The original and only authorized version of this celebrated play will be given. Miss Albert is an actress of extraordinary ability, and is particularly suited by nature for the requirements of the trying part of Iza, the model. The objectionable features are eliminated, and a number of realistic effects, the brilliant bal masque, the thrilling deed by moonlight, and the celebrated studio scene, are given prominently.

Is Marriage a Failure?

HAVE you been trying to get the best out of existence without health in your family? Have you been wearing out your life from the effects of Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint and Indigestion? Are you sleepless at night? Do you awake in the morning feeling languid, with coated tongue and hollow, haggard looks? Don't do it. A shout in the camp tells how Aunt Fanny's Health Restorer has cured others; it will cure you. Trial package free. Large size 50c., at Christian & Barbee.

CARPETS at from 15 cents to $2 per yard at the E. H. Stewart Furniture Company.

Still in the Fight.

MR. C. D. MAHON, agent for the Canton Steel Roofing Company, (in this city) wishes to inform the public generally that the destruction of their factories by fire on December 8, has in no way affected him in receiving orders for goods in his line. The immense factory was totally destroyed and will be rebuilt at once, but he is now ready to receive orders in any quantity. Post-office address, box 389; shop, 311 Roanoke street.

B. & O. Christmas Holiday Rates.

Tickets good between all stations of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company east of the Ohio river will be on sale at ticket offices of that company from December 24 to 26, inclusive, and from December 31 to January 3, inclusive. For more detailed information apply to nearest Baltimore and Ohio ticket agent.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES.

The West End meetings were closed, for the present, last night.

The new rooms begin to look like business. Stoves were put up yesterday and two Christmas trees are being decorated to-day for the entertainment by the United Brethren to-night.

The first service will be held in the new house to-morrow at 3 p. m., and will be of unusual interest. Rev. Mr. Miller and Secretary Wynne will address the meeting. All young men are invited to be present.

VIRGINIA NOTES.

The income tax of Virginia for the present year according to the auditor's report, yielded $54,154.44. Of this amount the negroes paid $7,354.

The vestry of Grace Episcopal Church, Lynchburg, has decided to extend a call to Rev. J. J. Lloyd, of Abingdon, to become rector of that church.

It is reported that the offices of the Shenandoah Valley division of the Norfolk and Western Railroad will be moved from Shenandoah, to Hagers town, Md.

Mr. Daniel H. Sowers, a well-known citizen of Clarke county, died on Wednesday night of last week, aged about 73 years, and Mr. John Cornwell, died suddenly in Berryville last week.

The Vice of Absenteeism.

From the Brooklyn Eagle.

The Democrats have a majority of 150 in the House of Representatives, but they forfeited Congressional control again by absenteeism. This is inexcusable neglect of duty. It is also very bad politics. How can the Democrats renew their indictment of the Republicans for selfish indifference to public concerns if the Democrats fail of enough interest in public affairs even to occupy their seats in Congress? A large majority is by no means always a decided advantage. This, that, and the other member regard it as safe to stay away, until suddenly the minority is left in control. If the margin is narrow every man is more likely to feel the responsibility of being in his place.

THE ST. LOUIS SCANDAL.

The Treasurer's Office at Present Under a Cloud.

St. Louis, Mo., Dec. 23.—Developments in the city treasury scandal are sensational in the extreme. Yow, the man who negotiated the loans for Foerstel, and who, in fact, was a go-between for the treasurer and the money lenders, has made a statement in which he says there was a shortage in the treasury for two years when he first began to borrow money for Foerstel to cover it up.

He declares that Mike Foerstel himself knew all about it and was active in covering it up. The statement which is printed this morning created a tremendous sensation. Yow is the man who holds Foerstel's note for something like $7,000, which the latter says is forged.

Foerstel has refused to prosecute Yow for forgery, which fact in the teeth of his declaration that he never executed the note is commented upon unfavorably. It is also hinted that some of the signatures to Foerstel's bond are forgeries.

Shot in Self-Defense.

TALLAHASSEE, Fla., Dec. 23.—Henry Moore, a negro, was shot in self-defense at noon to-day in the railroad yards of the F. C. and P. railroad by Night Operator D. S. Graham. Graham had an altercation with Moore a week or two ago when the latter threatened to kill him. To-day the quarrel was renewed when Moore leveled a weapon at Graham. The latter immediately drew his revolver and shot Moore, the ball entering just below the left eye. The negro started to run, but a second shot from Graham's pistol struck him in the back. Graham was arrested and released on his own recognizance. Moore will die.

Governor Tillman Denounced.

COLUMBIA, S. C., Dec. 23.—Nearly 400 railroad employees of South Carolina met last night and decided to organize the industrial union of South Carolina to fight the present administration. All the laboring men in the State will be invoked to join the union. Some speeches were made in which Governor Tillman was denounced. Resolutions were adopted condemning the Wilson railway law as inimical to workingmen, and declaring that there is a general disposition on the part of the present administration to work injury to the industrial pursuits of South Carolina.

Verdict Against the Railroad.

The case of Mrs. H. C. Eckles, administratrix of H. C. Eckles, deceased, vs. the Norfolk and Western railroad, was concluded in the Hastings Court yesterday and a verdict rendered for the plaintiff for $5,554.25. This action was brought by the plaintiff to recover $10,000 damages for the accidental killing of her husband on the railroad at Pulaski October 23, 1891. After the case had been tried the defendants demurred to the evidence and the verdict brought was subject to the opinion of the court upon the demurrer. Messrs. G. W. Crumpecker and Colonel Penn were counsel for the plaintiff and Watts, Robertson & Robertson for the defense.

They Eluded the Old Man.

John A. McKenry and Miss Brown, a daughter of Patton J. Brown, a prominent and wealthy citizen of Richlands, Tazewell county, came in on the 9:30 p. m. train yesterday on their way to Winston, N. C., where they will immediately upon their arrival, be made one. They were furnished with transportation on a special on the Winston-Salem division, and were accompanied by some of the officials of the road. They had arranged to consummate their happiness at Bristol, but having been informed that the late parent of the young lady had gone "cross country" to frustrate them they accordingly changed their plans as stated above.

Fifty barrels apples, car Michigan potatoes. B. F. Allen & Co., wholesale produce.

Old papers, 15 cents per hundred, for sale at this office.

Means Business.

THE Atlantic Savings and Loan Association, of Syracuse, New York, have made $24,000 in loans the past week. So far not an application has been turned down. This is gratifying information to Mr. Oscar D. Dorr, the agent for this city and State, as well as for the borrowers. The money is not to come, but is ready now. There is plenty of room for such associations as the Atlantic in this city. They have more money left.
